Problem Set 01 Rubric

	Poor (F)	Fair (D)	Satisfactory (C)	Good (B / A-)	Excellent (A)
Code Completion (8 points)	▸ None of the required steps that the do-file should accomplish have been completed ▸ Do-file not submitted	▸ Few of the required steps that the do-file should accomplish have been completed	▸ Approximately half of the required steps that the do-file should accomplish have been completed	▸ Most of the required steps that the do-file should accomplish have been completed	▸ All of the required steps that the do-file should accomplish have been completed
Syntax Accuracy (8 points)	▸ Syntax is largely incorrect ▸ Syntax contains exceptional organizational issues	▸ Syntax contains widespread errors ▸ Syntax contains widespread organizational issues	▸ Syntax contains moderate number of errors ▸ Syntax contains moderate organizational issues	▸ Syntax is largely complete with few omissions, typos, and/or missing options ▸ Syntax is generally well formatted and organized	▸ Syntax is complete with no omissions, typos, or missing options ▸ Syntax is well formatted and organized
Do-file Execution (4 points)	▸ Code does not successfully execute and/or log-file not included in submission; automatic "F" for this category			▸ Code does not fully execute but mitigating circumstances have been described by student	▸ Log file demonstrates complete execution of do-file
Literate Programming Approach (3 points)	▸ Code has no narrative text embedded in it	▸ Narrative does not use Markdown syntax ▸ Narrative has widespread organizational issues	▸ Narrative contains moderate Markdown formatting issues ▸ Narrative text has moderate organizational issues	▸ Narrative contains generally well formatted Markdown ▸ Narrative has few organizational issues	▸ Narrative contains exceptionally well formatted Markdown ▸ Narrative is easy to follow and appears below code
Narrative Content (3 points)	▸ Narrative does not address any questions ▸ Narrative does not describe any code ▸ Output file not submitted	▸ Narrative has widespread omissions and/or addresses few of the required questions and commands	▸ Narrative has moderate omissions and/or only address about half of required questions and commands	▸ Narrative answers questions with few omissions ▸ Narrative explains purpose of purpose of each command with few omissions	▸ Narrative clearly and correctly addresses questions posed by assignment ▸ Narrative clearly explains purpose of each command
Follow-up Questions (4 points)	▸ No questions answered or all questions are markedly incorrect	▸ Multiple questions have been skipped ▸ Widespread mistakes in answers	▸ Most questions have been answered with some mistakes and/or limited detail	▸ All questions have been answered correctly with adequate insight and detail	▸ All questions have been answered correctly with exceptional insight and detail
